Dear Mr. Popescu,

Thank you for contacting me with your support for S. Res. 148, A resolution to express the sense of the Senate that the United States should support the right to self-determination of the people of the Republic of Moldavia and northern Bucovina. Your thoughts are important to me as I work to effectively represent you in Congress.

As you stated in your e-mail, S. Res. 148 was introduced in the Senate during the 102nd Congress. Currently, this legislation has not been reintroduced in the U.S. Senate or U.S. House of Representatives. However, please rest assured that I will keep your thoughts in mind should it come to the House of Representatives.

Moreover, you may be interested to know that on July 11, 2017, Senator Ron Johnson (WI) introduced S. Res. 218, A resolution celebrating and reaffirming the strategic partnership between the United States and Romania on the twentieth anniversary of its inception. Although this bill has not been introduced in the House, I will certainly track its progress and remember your interest in the issue should I have the opportunity to consider it in the House.

Thank you again for taking the time to contact me. If you'd like to receive updates about this issue and other news that's important to our community, please sign up here.
